County S. S. Convention at Glover.

The annual convention of the Orleans County Sunday School association, which was held at Glover Wednesday, was the largest and most interesting session that has been held in many years. The convention was held in the Community church in that village, and it was stated by the president that Orleans county leads the state at present in all Sunday school matters. Four Sunday schools in the county were granted honor certificates for having reached the standard of efficiency.

Rev. G. Ernest Robbins, state secretary, was not able to be present, having received an accident recently that has kept him in the hospital for several weeks.

One of the features of the convention was the addresses of Dr. Joseph Clark of New York, who discussed "What We Might Do," and "Our Outward Look," Dr. Clark stated that the convention was the best he had been in for many years, though he is in attendance upon conventions in every part of the country.

The election of officers resulted in the choice of Albert A. Silver of Derby as president, with the various superintendents of the different divisions as vice-presidents. The Glover community church furnished a bountiful dinner to all delegates.

Among the resolutions adopted was the following relating to the Orleans county fair.

Resolved, that in the interest of good morals, clean government, and proper public opinion, we the Orleans County Sunday school convention, earnestly request the officials of the Orleans County fair to omit at the coming fair those gambling features that last year so marred the pleasure of a great portion of the community. We would ask this in the name of the rising generation that our children may escape evil temptations.

Those from Newport in attendance were: Mrs. W. C. Shepard, Mrs. Roy Shattuck, Mrs. Joseph Seguin, Miss Bertha Gibb, Miss Maud Gibb, Miss Pearl Blackburn, Mrs. Charles Cousins, Mrs. Belle Alexander, Mrs. Loren Shattuck, Mrs. E. F. Hobson, Mrs. Ralph Fairbank, Mrs. Wm. Pearson, Miss Arabelle Parker, Mrs. B. R. Doran, Rev. J. H. Blackburn, Mrs. Helen Himmelman, Rev. L. A. Edwards, Mrs. Dean N. Dwinell, Mrs. Will Prouty, Mrs. Albie Burt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clement, Mrs. Ernest Scott, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Richard, Helen Livingston, Mabel Gay.

The party of fourteen from the Main Street Baptist church were transported in the cars of Delos Marvin, Frank Wheeler and Rev. Blackburn.

PAGEANT FRIDAY NIGHT

Full Dress Rehearsals Nearing End. Spectacular Event.

The first presentation of the great Barton Historical Pageant will be given Friday night at 8 o'clock, following a free pageant parade at 7 o'clock. This presentation is free to children. Free children's tickets may be had from Bigelow's pharmacy, Newport; Kelley's pharmacy, North Troy; Austin's pharmacy, Orleans; and Pierce's pharmacy, Barton. Adult tickets and descriptive circulars may also be had at these places.

The pageant site is an unparalleled beauty-spot on the shore of Crystal lake, a few minutes' walk from the center of Barton village, where mountain, forest and lake meet.

Beautiful costumes, magnificent scenes, wonderful lighting, graceful dancing, all enter into the train of episodes which present the history of the town of Barton in a great play written and staged on a large scale.

The program complete will be presented four times, Friday night, the only night when children are admitted free, Saturday night, and Monday afternoon and night. People from the north can get to Barton for the Monday afternoon presentation, which takes place at 3 o'clock, and return on the evening train which leaves Barton at 7:26. A special from St. Johnsbury will also be returning Monday evening, and it is hoped will be late enough in going through Barton to accommodate any who may desire to see the evening show and have no means of getting back but the railroad.

If the weather is bad for any presentation, tickets may be exchanged for a later presentation, or in the case of the Monday afternoon and evening shows, an extra number will be given or money refunded. Everyone holding a ticket is guaranteed a presentation or his money back. In case of doubtful weather the Barton telephone central will give information as to whether the show will be given or not.

Nothing of the kind has ever been given in Orleans county and represents many weeks of work in writing, staging, costuming and rehearsing. More than 300 people take part in the 12 episodes.

The air plane is expected to arrive Thursday coming from Randolph and will carry passengers until Saturday night. He will use the field west of Mr. Fuller's home on Elm street for landing and getting away. No charge for going into the field will be made but cars and teams must be left on the street.

Remember the ball game Saturday afternoon and Monday forenoon and the band concert, pageant.

The following program is expected to be carried out complete:

FRIDAY, JULY 1
7.00 p. m. Pageant parade (free)
8.00 p. m. Pageant presentation.

SATURDAY, JULY 2
10.00 a. m. Aeroplane exhibition (free)
11.00 a. m. Band concert (free)
2.00 p. m. Aeroplane exhibition (free)
3.00 p. m. Baseball. Newport vs. Barton

7.00 p. m. Pageant parade (free)
8.00 p. m. Pageant presentation.

SUNDAY, JULY 3
No program arranged by the committee.

MONDAY, JULY 4
10.00 a. m. Baseball. Lyndonville vs. Barton
1.00 p. m. Band concert (free)
3.00 p. m. Pageant presentation.
7.00 p. m. Pageant parade (free)
8.00 p. m. Pageant presentation.

Pageant Notes

Remember each presentation of the pageant is complete. Some have the idea that it is divided into four parts and one part only is given at each presentation. You see the complete presentation each time.

Owing to lack of room and the noise and confusion of spectators at Tuesday night's rehearsal at the Pageant grounds, Miss Hogle has asked only those who have a part to go tonight.

All those who are taking part in the pageant and have cars are asked to come to Alumni hall 15 minutes before their rehearsal is scheduled to night to take actors to the grounds.

All those who will take part in the pageant parade and carry actors in their cars are asked to be on hand 30 minutes before the time scheduled for the parade each time to give that much time for make-up of characters and be assigned to position in the parade. The committee would also appreciate it if each person could decorate his car in some simple manner. Telephone either Ray Underwood or Dr. Hastings at this matter.

Two 1000-watt electric spot lights exactly like those used on naval vessels have been set up on the Pageant grounds and seven large flood lights besides many foot lights of different colors. The lighting effect is the most elaborate and beautiful ever seen in this vicinity. The reflectors alone cost several hundred dollars each in the spot lights.

The Pageant grounds are now polished night and day.

Get your free tickets for the children Friday night at Pierce's before going to the grounds if possible. Remember children must be accompanied by adults.

Every indication points to large crowds and the government weather bureau has predicted a position of man of splendid character and a respected citizen of the town, having lived in Barton all his life. He was born January 27, 1842, one of a family of eight children, all of whom have died, as well as his wife and only daughter. He enlisted in Co. D, 3rd Vermont August 15, 1862, and was member of George W. Quimby Post, G. A. R. Funeral services were held Wednesday, June 22, and burial was at Willoughby cemetery, Rev. J. J. Hutchinson officiating.

Dr. J. A. Pearson expects to be in his office again Thursday, July 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter LeBell are on a motor trip to Boston and other points.

Miss Laura B. Case has moved to the home of E. D. Alger for the summer.

Supt. C. L. Erwin and family of Bel. Falls are in town for a short stay.

Dr. Foote, dentist, will be at Hotel Barton Friday, July 3. New low prices.

Miss Catherine Wilcox of New York is the guest of her aunt, Miss Lydia Colburn.

Mrs. Sumner Prescott of Lyndon called on her cousin, Mrs. F. P. Smith, last week.

Mrs. George Rash had a severe shock Saturday. She remains in a critical condition.

Miss Sarah Priest of Glover sustained an operation at Sunshine sanitarium last week.

W. J. Utton has gone to Maine with a string of horses where he will enter them for races.

Mrs. A. M. Vercoe and son, Raymond Longley, were in Montreal last week visiting her sisters.

The Orange and Black sewing club will meet with Mrs. Carter Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Miss Pearl Hubbard recently spent two weeks with her aunt and sister at Lyndon and St. Johnsbury.

Albert Quilliam and mother of Magog recently spent a few days with his aunt, Mrs. D. J. Huntington.

A. W. Buswell picked 15 pounds of green peas from his garden Sunday. Who can beat this for early gardening?

E. C. Wilkie of High street has had his buildings newly painted. F. W. Constock is also having his house painted.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. King of West Glover are in town and will occupy the downstairs tenement in the Stiles house on Lincoln avenue.

The following letters are advertised this week unclaimed: Carl Wilder, Churchill Bros., L. M. Jackson, Paul Kaye, R. H. Silbille, Leslie Wilkie.

W. D. Caswell of Concord, N. H., a native of Barton and an employee of the Post Office at Concord, was a visitor in town last week.

The Congregational parsonage is receiving some much needed repairs. A new veranda has been added in front and considerable inside work is being done.

Remember the annual school meeting at Alumni hall Thursday night. One article is to see whether the district will vote to remodel Alumni hall to make it suitable for athletic purposes, and vote a tax for the purpose. The other articles concern routine business.

Complaint has been made that money was lost from the pockets of clothing hung in the bath house Sunday. It is a shame that thievery of this kind has to go on at a bath house generously provided for the public. The water is now fine and there is much bathing this splendid beach.

The public library will be closed during the period of the pageant—Friday, July 1st, to Monday, July 4th inclusive, when new books will be put into circulation, but one will be allowed to any one family, juveniles included, and no renewals.

Rev. Charles S. Frost of Providence, R. I., is in town on a brief visit to his aged aunt, Mrs. Lydia Milligan, and is being entertained in the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Paige. Mr. Frost at the invitation of Rev. Turner, delivered a sermon at the Sunday evening service in the Methodist church.

Miss Ina N. Paige has returned to Barton from Ohio, having been graduated in this year's class from Ohio Wesleyan University. Paige received her B. A. degree, being fourth in a class of 232, and receiving "magna cum laude" honors. Miss Paige was accompanied on her return trip by Miss A. Vivian Grant of Boston, Mass., who attended the commencement exercises. The trip to Barton was made via Niagara Falls, the Thousand Islands, the St. Lawrence rapids and Montreal.

L. J. Harriman, at one time a Barton banker but for several years in the banking business in California, has recently accepted a position as manager of the new business department of the Bank of Italy at Fresno, Calif. This bank is the largest bank west of Chicago and Mr. Harriman's friends here congratulate him. For eight years he was a quiet man but a man of splendid character and a respected citizen of the town, having lived in Barton all his life. He was born January 27, 1842, one of a family of eight children, all of whom have died, as well as his wife and only daughter. He enlisted in Co. D, 3rd Vermont August 15, 1862, and was member of George W. Quimby Post, G. A. R. Funeral services were held Wednesday, June 22, and burial was at Willoughby cemetery, Rev. J. J. Hutchinson officiating.

Irene Bliss Kelton was born in Calais, Vt., December 15, 1831, and died June 7, 1921. When only 12 years of age she went out into the world to take care of herself by working in the weaving rooms of different shops in Nashua, N. H., and Montpelier. While working in Montpelier as head tailor she operated the first sewing machine used in that town. When a young woman she traveled to Ohio by stagecoach. In 1865 she married William Henry Kelton, a Union soldier. After his discharge from the army they settled on a farm in Calais. To them six children were born, William, who died in infancy, Mary, who died at the age of four years; Charles, who lives in Glover; Julia Mitchell, who died in 1915; May Foster, who now lives in Northampton, Mass.; and Nora Salmon, with whom she has made her home since the death of her husband in 1901. Besides her three children, she leaves nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren to mourn her loss.

CARD—We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness shown us during the sickness and death of our dear mother and grandmother, especially those who offered cars.

Nora Salmon and family.

N. M. Scott.

N. M. Scott, who has been a resident of Barton since 1880, and for many years actively engaged in business enterprises, died Friday, following a sickness of several weeks. Funeral services were held from the home Monday afternoon, Rev. W. A. Warner officiating, Rev. J. J. Hutchinson assisting, and burial was in the Glover cemetery. The Masonic order attended in a body.

Mr. Scott was born in Sandwich, N. H., January 4, 1837, making him 84 years old. His father was Rev. N. W. Scott, who died in Glover, where the family came from Greensboro. Mr. Scott received a common school education, with a few terms at Orleans Liberal Institute, working out meanwhile. He was engaged in farming in Glover three years, when he went into a harness shop, carrying on that business several years. Selling out, he hired the Glover gristmill which he carried on, doing a large custom and flour and feed business for eight years.

He married Elvira S. Bean of Glover, a daughter of Amos Bean, in 1858. As fruits of the marriage seven children were born to them. Amos W. Frank A., and Harry, in St. Johnsbury. Myrtle E. married F. C. Brown, with whom Mr. Scott has lived since the death of his wife in 1911; Charles, Ida and Hattie died while children.

In 1880 Mr. Scott moved to Barton, hired what is known as the "depot store" and carried on a large business in flour, grain, feed, etc., for ten years, when he sold out his business, his health not being sufficiently good to permit of hard work. For some time he carried on a smaller business in flour, feed and sugar. He was a large purchaser of maple sugar for many years. Mr. Scott was a thrifty, sagacious business man. Both in Glover and in Barton he was honored with public offices, having served in various capacities with credit to himself. He was identified with most public enterprises in town during his business career.

He was the oldest past master of Orleans Lodge No. 55, F. and A. M., in which he had always been active, and one of the oldest Masons in Vermont, having become a Mason in 1861. He was also a member of several higher Masonic bodies.

EVANSVILLE

S. J. Kittle spent the week-end with his family here.

Mrs. Norris of Orleans has come to make her home with her son, Walter.

Miss Leona Cook of Jericho Center is visiting her brother, Rev. W. W. Cook.
